

PDA Level 6 accredited course in YOUTH WORK

Over six training days and home based study we will cover 3 Units:

- Understanding and exploring youth work
- Engaging with young people
- Delivering youth work

Participants will be required to :

- Attend 6 day courses,
- Complete 3 assessments
- 1 observed session
- 10 sessions in a youth work setting

Who should attend?

- People with 1 years experience in a youth work setting
- Currently working or volunteering in youth work in Highland
- Interested in gaining SQA accredited qualification
- Able to commit to all 6 dates

This is a course delivered by Youth Highland using course materials developed by Youth Scotland and Area Associations

This course will develop your understanding of theory and practice in youth work and help you in your role as a youth worker.

The course will enable participants to develop knowledge and skills in various areas including:

- Context, core values and principles of youth work.
- Understanding issues facing young people and youth workers
- Communication and group work skills
- Different approaches in youth work
- Youth Work settings
- Plan, Deliver, Review

The course provides a sound base for progression to further study and vocationally related qualifications.

TRAINING DATES:

28th Nov, 5th Dec

16th Jan, 23rd Jan

27th Feb, 6th March

VENUE:

The Pillar Box, Dingwall

COST: £500 per person. Youth Highland will use discretion when offering discounted places to volunteers and can assist organisations in seeking funding to enable participants to secure funds to access a place on the course

